Subject: Membership Options

Dear Friend of CWIT:

It's membership renewal time and Charleston Women in International Trade (CWIT) looks forward to your participation as a member! We are proud to report that our current membership remains strong, due to our history of offering relevant programs and professional networking and meaningful social opportunities.

We welcome anyone who has an interest in and/or is affiliated with international trade and membership is open to women, men, retirees and students. The following rates apply:

- $51 - Individual membership
- $25 - Retirees/students membership
- $120 - Corporate membership for 3 named members
- $40 - Additional named corporate members
- $300 - Individual membership with annual sponsorship

Membership is very important to CWIT as an organization! It enables us to facilitate the advancement of women in fields related to international trade, and serves as an endorsement of our mission. It also helps offset meeting expenses and contributes to our scholarship fund. In addition, the strength of our membership ensures that we are able to secure prominent speakers, negotiate key meeting facilities, and attract strong leadership.

Membership in CWIT is also very beneficial to you! As a member, you will receive discounts on meetings and other events, i.e. members pay $20 instead of $25 to attend monthly luncheon programs. In addition, you will receive priority registration to "limited attendance" events, the right to participate in the election of CWIT officers, the honor to nominate "Woman-of-the-Year" candidates, and the opportunity to volunteer and/or be considered for board positions.

This letter serves as CWIT's official invoice for membership. Print and select an appropriate membership option above and mail this document to CWIT with a check payable to CWIT at P.O. Box 20145, Charleston, SC 29413. Include member names and contact information on document and with payment. If preferred, credit card payments can be arranged by contacting our treasurer at treasurer@cwitsc.org. Please note too, if you are joining during our membership drive season you may also choose to register to pay online by clicking the "JOIN TODAY" link listed under our November and December calendar event offerings that are posted at www.cwitsc.org/calendar.asp.

Thank you for this investment in CWIT and for your continued support. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to email CWIT's membership chair at membership@cwitsc.org. We appreciate your involvement as a member in CWIT!

Sincerely,
CWIT Board of Directors
